NEWS RELEASE

Vancouver, B.C.

June 15, 2017

ALQ Gold Corp. (CSE: ALQ) (“ALQ” or the “Company”) announces the private placement of June 13, 2017 has been cancelled. However the Company remains committed to raising necessary working capital, and so announces its intention to complete:

- (i) a consolidation of its issued and outstanding common shares on the basis of one new share for every two shares outstanding; and
- (ii) a non-brokered private placement to raise up to $1,100,000 through the distribution of 14,666,667 units (“Units”) of the Company at a price of $0.075 per Unit. Each Unit will comprise of one (1) post-consolidated common share (“Share”) and one (1) Share purchase warrant (“Warrant”); each Warrant entitling the holder to acquire one (1) additional Share at $0.10 for a period of five (5) years.

The net proceeds of the offering will be used by the Company for working capital purposes and to look for new business opportunities. Closing of the private placement is subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, including approval of the CSE. Finder’s fees may be paid in connection with the offering.

Cautionary Statement Regarding “Forward-Looking” Information

Some of the statements contained in this news release are forward-looking statements and information within the meaning of applicable securities laws. In particular, the statements that ALQ will complete a consolidation of its common shares, and subsequently complete a private placement of its securities, are both forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements are based on a number of assumptions and estimates that, while considered reasonable by management based on the business and markets in which ALQ operates, are inherently subject to significant operational, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies. As such, there is no guarantee that the Company will complete either the consolidation or the private placement in the manner outlined above, or at all.
