Wildflower Products Coming Soon to Amazon.com

Company's CBD products will soon be available on major online retailer

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, June 27, 2017: Wildflower Marijuana Inc. (CSE: SUN) (the "Company") is pleased to announce that its cannabidiol ("CBD") products will soon be available for purchase on Amazon.com, the world's largest online retailer.

Wildflower's efforts at launching its products on to platforms such as Amazon.com will help it to gain an early hold in the market and position it for significant growth.

Wildflower has focused on developing holistic products with CBD targeting the new generation of consumers concerned with their health and wellness. This demographic tends to be more interested in the health benefits derived from natural plant sources. This business approach directly correlates with Amazon's decision to purchase Whole Foods which targets the largest consumer growth segment of products to provide them with the ease of delivery and service.

The launch of Wildflower's full line of CBD+ products on Amazon.com along with its own online sales platform marks the beginning of Wildflower's online strategy.

William MacLean, CEO of Wildflower states "The general public is becoming much more aware of the healing and soothing properties of CBD, and our Company is working to help bring those products into the mainstream wherever and whenever possible. Having these products available on a site that's as widely used as Amazon will certainly help us to accomplish this goal".
