Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

On September 9, 2015, the Issuer announced the release of the beta version of what it believes will be the most advanced global communication platform available. ChitrChatr's communications Platform is fully functional and scalable on Windows Desktop, Linux Desktop, Android, Mac OSX and IOS operating systems. Users all over the world will be able to communicate on this single platform for Voice, Audio, Video, Chat, Conference Calling, Messaging, SMS/TXT, Email and Social Networking applications, using multiple hardware including Desktops, Laptops, Tablets, iPads, and Smart Phones. Responding to consumer demand, the ChitrChatr Platform has been designed to provide a global communications platform complete with enhancements and features not seen before.

On September 29, 2015, the Issuer provided a corporate update and the progress of Phase I of the Comprehensive Universal Unified Communications Platform (CUUCP). In the previously announced press release on March 16, 2015, ChitrChatr's intent was to state Phase I was now complete and as a result of completing Phase I, Alpha testing began. ChitrChatr commenced early testing of the Beta version of the company's CUUCP with its release on September 9, 2015 and all is proceeding as expected and it is performing well. Beta testing subscribers have been issued access codes for enhanced security during the testing phase. The Beta testing is intended to evaluate function, speed and to ensure all attributes work as designed and to identify any "bugs" within the various platforms to allow the programming and development team to institute corrective fixes prior to market release of the CUUCP. Currently both IOS and Android operating systems are available to Beta testing subscribers by downloading from a link provided by ChitrChatr. The Company anticipates releasing the Windows Mobile version in approximately two weeks. After completion of Beta testing, and the subsequent market release, subscribers will be able to download all mobile Platforms from the App Stores. The Company would like to thank the current staff of 59 ChitrChatr Developers for their hard work in launching the early Beta Version. The Company anticipates adding an additional 40 staff by the end of 2015. With the Beta version launched and available for the public to test, ChitrChatr looks forward to building the most comprehensive, high quality platform with even more exciting features and make ChitrChatr truly the best and most comprehensive personal and business communications program in the market. The Company also announces the cancellation of the market stabilization agreement with Mackie Research Capital Corporation that was announced in a press release on September 24, 2014.
